KATHRYN M. HOPWOOD

Kathryn M. Hopwood, widow of E. Fermor Hopwood, passed away at Pleasant Park Care Center April 21, 1984. She had been a resident there since Sept., 1982. Prior to this, she had made her home with her daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd J. (Evelyn) Poole at 149 College Ave., Oskaloosa.

She was the daughter of Fred W. and Estella Ringle Ehret, born at Deep River Feb. 27, 1905.

She was graduated from Deep River High School, 1924, attended business college in Des Moines, and Iowa State Teachers College in Cedar Falls. Mrs. Hopwood taught in rural Poweshiek County schools before her marriage.

She married E. Fermor Hopwood on June 2, 1928 at Marengo. They lived in North English for about a year, and then moved back to Deep River, where they remained until 1946. In that year, they moved to Oskaloosa, where she resumed teaching in Mahaska County rural schools. She taught in Jefferson and Wilson schools at Ottumwa, 1954-1971. She got her degree from Drake University in the early 1950's.

She is survived by her daughter; four grandchildren, Michael Perry of Omaha, Mrs. Tony (Denise) Beadles of Oskaloosa, Kim Perry of Warren, Mo., and Michael Poole of Kellogg. There are three great-grandchildren.

Also surviving are her brother, Glen Ehret of Clay Center, Kas., and nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her parents, husband, and brother, Edward.

She was a member of the Central United Methodist Church of Oskaloosa.

Services were at Powers Funeral Home, Oskaloosa, conducted by the Rev. Milo Morris. Burial was at Golden Rod Cemetery, Deep River, on April 23, 1984. BC
