John H. Hotchkin Answers Call

John Henry Hotchkin was one of a family of influential, respected citizens of this community. He was honest and honorable, faithful, hard-working and though he made little display of his virtues, in his own neighborhood and, in fact, wherever he was known, he was looked upon as a good citizen and an honorable one.

In the time of trouble, J. H., as he was familiarly known, could be relied upon to give freely of his time and energy to any worthy cause. His life was a peaceful, unostentatious life, but it was filled with deeds of kindness and good will.

Funeral services were held Monday morning at St. Mary's church in Grinnell, conducted by Father M. J. Hanon. Burial was in Hazelwood.

Mr. Hotchkin leaves his widow and several brothers and sisters. One brother, Will, died a few weeks ago.
