

Ponderosa man killed, another hurt in crash

A Lake Ponderosa man died early Saturday when the sports car he was driving went out of control north of Searsboro, throwing him and a passenger from the vehicle.

Authorities said Richard Hubby Jr., 29, lost control of the car approximately one mile north of Searsboro. Hubby was pronounced dead on arrival at Grinnell General Hospital.

The passenger, Terry Lloyd, 31, of New Sharon was taken to Grinnell General Hospital, then transferred to University Hospitals in Iowa City, where he was listed in critical condition with multiple injuries.

The accident occurred at 1:20 a.m.
