

Glenn H. Hulsebus

Rev. Glenn H. Hulsebus, 85, of Grinnell died Aug. 24, 2000 at the Mayflower Home in Grinnell.

A memorial service for him was at First Presbyterian Church in Montezuma on Aug. 27 with Pastor George M. Salnave officiating.

A private family burial was in Union Township Cemetery in Defiance.

Rev. Hulsebus was born June 29, 1915 in Buck Grove to William and Mary Beckman Hulsebus. He was raised on the family farm near Defiance and graduated from high school there. He earned a bachelor of arts degree from Westmar College in LeMars in 1939 and graduated from the Evangelical School of Theology in Naperville, Ill. in 1942. In 1973, he also earned a master's degree in Naperville.

On June 21, 1942, he married Helen Grosenbach in Peoria. He served from 1942-1998 as a minister in Presbyterian churches in Red Oak, Maxwell, Schaller, Brooklyn, Fort Dodge and Ewart.

Rev. Hulsebus was a member of the Rotary and Lions clubs. In 1992, he earned the Governor's Volunteer Award. He was Stated Clerk of North Central Presbytery, a delegate to national Presbyterian meetings, Hawkeye Valley Council on Aging chairman, an Older Iowans Legislature delegate, chairman of the governing board of Second Mile and a member of the board of directors of Iowa Children and Family Services.

Preceding him in death were his parents, one sister, Florence and two brothers, Carl and Wesley.

Rev. Hulsebus is survived by his wife, Helen Hulsebus of Grinnell; three daughters, Sharon Richman of Indianola, Kathleen Ramsey of Montezuma, JoAnn Thompson of Ames; one son, Steven Hulsebus of Fort Dodge; nine grandchildren, seven great-grandchildren, one brother, David Hulsebus of Defiance and one sister, Margaret Hulsebus of Denison.

A memorial fund in his name is being established and donations may be sent in care of Smith Funeral Home, Box 368, Grinnell 50112.

MR August 30, 2000

Glenn Hulsebus

The Rev. Glenn H. Hulsebus, 85, of Grinnell died of complications of Alzheimer's disease Thursday, Aug. 24, at the Mayflower.

A memorial services was held Sunday at the First Presbyterian Church in Montezuma, with Dr. George M. Salnave officiating. A private family burial service was conducted at Union Township Cemetery, Defiance.

He was born June 29, 1915, in Buck Grove to William and Mary Beckman Hulsebus. He was raised on the family farm near Defiance and graduated from high school there. He received a B.A. degree from Westmar College in LeMars in 1939 and graduated from the Evangelical School of Theology in Naperville, Ill., in 1942. In 1973, he was granted a master's degree in sacred theology in Naperville.

He was married to Helen Grosenbach June 21, 1942, in Peoria, Ill. He served from 1942 to 1998 as a minister in Presbyterian churches in Red Oak, Maxwell, Schaller, Brooklyn, Fort Dodge and Ewart.

He was a member of the Rotary and Lions clubs. He received the Governor's Volunteer Award in 1992 and was stated clerk of the North Central Presbytery, a delegate to national Presbyterian meetings, chairman of the Hawkeye Valley Council on Aging, a delegate to the Older Iowans Legislature, chairman of the governing board of Second Mile and a member of the board of directors of Iowa Children and Family Services.

Surviving are his wife; three daughters, Sharon Richman of Indianola, Kathleen Ramsey of Montezuma and JoAnn Thompson of Ames; one son, Steven of Fort Dodge; nine grandchildren; seven great-grandchildren; one brother, David of Defiance; and one sister, Margaret Hulsebus of Denison.

He was preceded in death by his parents; one sister, Florence; and two brothers, Carl and Wesley.

A memorial fund is being established in Mr. Hulsebus's name, and contributions may be sent in care of the Smith Funeral Home, P.O. Box

Rev. Glenn H. Hulsebus

A memorial service was held Sunday afternoon, Aug. 27, at the First Presbyterian Church in Montezuma for the Rev. Glenn H. Hulsebus, 85, of Grinnell, who died Thursday, Aug. 24, 2000, at the Mayflower Home in Grinnell, of complications due to Alzheimer's disease.

Dr. George M. Salnave, pastor of the church, officiated. A private family burial was held in the Union Township Cemetery at Defiance.

Glenn was born on June 29, 1915, in Buck Grove, to William and Mary Beckman Hulsebus. He was raised on the family farm near Defiance, and graduated from high school there. He received a BA degree from Westmar College in LeMars in 1939 and graduated from the Evangelical School of Theology in Naperville, Ill., in 1942. In 1973 he was granted a masters degree from Sacred Theology in Naperville.

On June 21, 1942, he was married to Helen Grosenbach in Peoria, Ill. He served from 1942 to 1998 as a minister in Presbyterian churches in Red Oak, Maxwell, Schaller, Brooklyn, Fort Dodge and Ewart.

He was a member of the Rotary and Lions clubs. He received the Governor's Volunteer Award in 1992 and was Stated Clerk of North Central Presbytery; a delegate to National Presbyterian meetings, chairman of the Hawkeye Valley Council on Aging, delegate to Older Iowans Legislature, chairman of the governing board of Second Mile, and a member of the board of directors of the Iowa Children and Family Services.

He was preceded in death by one sister, Florence; and two brothers, Carl and Wesley.

Survivors include his wife, Helen Hulsebus of Grinnell; three daughters, Sharon Richman of Indianola, Kathleen Ramsey of Montezuma, and JoAnn Thompson of Ames; one son, Steven Hulsebus of Fort Dodge; nine grandchildren; seven great-grandchildren; one brother, David Hulsebus of Defiance; and one sister, Margaret Hulsebus of Denison.

A memorial fund in his name is being established and may be sent in care of Smith Funeral Home, PO Box 368, Grinnell, IA 50112. Smith Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

H-R August 28, 2000

BC August 30, 2000