

Aged Resident Laid To Rest

Funeral services for James Hurdle were held from the home of his daughter, Mrs. Allen Hunter Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock conducted by Rev. E. E. Heltibridle, pastor of the Christian church at Grundy Center. Pallbearers were L. L. Grooms, J. C. Parrott, J. T. Walker, C. P. Kimball, J. S. Rollins and W. C. French. Music was furnished by Mr. and Mrs. Morris Phillips of Conrad. The flowers were in charge of Miss Ann Rearty, Mrs. C. B. Demory and Mrs. Clayborn Chambers. Interment was at Hazelwood.

James Hurdle was born March 5, 1840 at Circleville, Ohio. He was married to Mary Elizabeth Deeks at Indiana, Ill., October 25, 1864. They have been born five children. They are George W. of Mineral Springs, Mo., who departed this life June 8, 1893; Matthew James of Kelllogg, Ohio Hunter of Grundy Center, Mo., who departed this life January 17, 1917, just two days before the death of his mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Hurdle celebrated their sixtieth wedding anniversary October 25, 1924. Mr. Hurdle came to Iowa in 1869 and with the exception of the last fifteen years resided in and around Newburg. At the death of his wife, Mr. Hurdle came to Grundy Center, where he has made his home since with his daughter, Mrs. Allen Hunter.

He died at 2 o'clock a.m., Aug. 21 at the age of 91 years, 5 months and 15 days. He was converted at a very early age. He has belonged to the Church of God for the past sixty years and was a very active member in the Newburg church during his lifetime there.

Mr. Hurdle was a man who was very fond of his home and children and took a great interest in his grandchildren. Besides his three living children he leaves to mourn his loss one brother, Edward, Rockwell City, and one sister, Mary Harmor, Forreston, Ill., seven grandchildren and sixteen great grandchildren. He has always been a very active and ambitious man and the last few years was more so than was best for him. He had been in very poor health for the past three months and last Saturday, a week ago, became very ill.
