2-11-1960
Nora Louisa White, daughter of Wyatt and Emily Jane White, was born July 27, 1873, in Lynnville, Iowa, and passed away at Newton, Iowa, on Jan. 23, 1960, at the age of 86 years, six months and one day. She spent her entire life in Lynnville, except for a few years spent in Searsboro.

On July 27, 1896, she was united in marriage with Emmit Huston in Lynnville, to which union were born two daughters, Anna Harris of Lynnville and Francena O'Connell of Clarion. They had the happy privilege of observing their 50th wedding anniversary in 1946. She was saddened to learn of her husband's death on June 1, 1948.

She was a church member of the Friends church and became a member of the Lynnville Friends church on Feb. 23, 1919. She was an active member and faithful in attending all services as long as her health permitted.

She was a member of the Eastern Star and a past worthy matron.

Surviving are the two daughters, Mrs. Harris of Lynnville and Mrs. O'Connell of Clarion; three granddaughters, Mrs. Ruth Elaine Terpstra and Linda Harris of Lynnville, and Mrs. Mary O. Lawrence of Merriam, Kan.; and three great-grandsons, Douglas, Mark, and Steven Terpstra.

Funeral services were held Saturday morning in the Lynnville Friends church in charge of Rev. Carl D. Byrd. Mrs. Howard Macy accompanied Mrs. Harney Gause and Mrs. Doyle Schultz, who sang "The Last Mile of the Way" and "Have Thine Own Way."

Pallbearers were Vern Stanley, Ozro Dearing, Virgil Beason, Will VanderKamp, Ray Ver Steeg, and Edward Renaud. In charge of flowers were Mrs. Charles Quire and Mrs. Ada Jay. Interment was in Woodland cemetery where Masonic rites were conducted.
