Mrs. Anna Ingraham Rites Held Saturday

HERB

Funeral services for Mrs. Anna Ingraham of Barnes City were conducted by the Rev. David Brown and the Rev. Douglas Smiley at the Barnes City Christian Church Saturday afternoon, Sept. 21. Music was provided by Mrs. Wayne Pitman and Mrs. Darwin Palmer.

Casket bearers were Paul Mason, Elmo Chandler, Earnest Mason, Carl Speas, Jess Ingraham and Darwin Palmer. Interment was at the Barnes City Cemetery. Steffy Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Ingraham, 85, died Wednesday, Sept. 18.

The daughter of Solomon and Lucy Farber Harter, she was born on Jan. 21, 1883, at Oswego, Ind. She was educated as a school teacher and taught school in that vicinity.

The family moved to North Dakota where they homesteaded in the northwest part of the state. In 1903 Anna established a homestead near her family's farm and after establishing the homesteads the family moved to Perth, N.D. On Jan. 25, 1905 she married Herb Ingraham and they moved to his homestead near Williston, N.D.

From 1909 until 1926 they lived on her homestead and then moved to Minot, N.D., and then to Minnesota. They moved to Barnes City in 1943.

She was an active member of the Barnes City Christian Church.

She is survived by two sons, Samuel of Mahtowa, Minn., and Richard of Waldport, Ore.; six grandchildren; six great-grandchildren; one brother, John Harter of Oregon; and one sister, Maude Hartman of Indiana.
