

Evah Ingraham Rites Held Tuesday

Funeral services for Mrs. Evah Ingraham were conducted by the Rev. Adam Miskavitz at the Steffy Funeral Home Tuesday afternoon, June 21. Mrs. Wayne Pitman was soloist accompanied by Mrs. William Landstrum, organist, at the services.

Interment was in Barnes City Cemetery with Gale Riggs, Louis Jones, James Corbett, Alfred Graham, Carl Lindbloom and Charles Hamilton serving as casket bearers.

Mrs. Ingraham, 82, died Saturday, June 18, in an Oskaloosa nursing home where she had resided the past seven months.

The daughter of William and Mary Barnes, she was born Feb. 4, 1884, on a farm near Barnes City.

On July 26, 1905, she married Arthur Harry Ingraham and to this union three sons seven years when the family moved to Wisconsin in 1910.

She joined the Christian Church in Barnes City when she was 17-years-old.

Mrs. Ingraham was preceded in death by her parents; her husband; two sons, Harry, age four and Thomas, age three; a brother and two half-brothers.

She is survived by her son, Jess of Barnes City; two grandchildren, Norman Ingraham and Joan Mason; three great grandchildren, Connie, Debra and Rodney Mason; a sister, Mrs. Veri Walsh; and a brother, John Tolles.

Arthur