

11-17-77 11:17 AM

Rites set for Mr. Inman

Silas J. "Bugs" Inman, 54, of 821 Elm St. died Saturday evening at St. Francis Manor. He had been suffering from cancer in recent months.

Funeral services will be held at 1:30 p.m. Tuesday at the Smith Funeral Home, with the Rev. James P. Russell, pastor of the Grinnell United Methodist Church, officiating. Organist will be Kathleen Heffner. Burial will be at Hazeiwood Cemetery.

The son of Silas W. and Ruth Bradley Inman, he was born in Grinnell on Feb. 5, 1923. He attended the Grinnell schools and was graduated from Grinnell High School in 1943. He was associated with his father in the floor contracting business and was a specialist in finishing and painting basketball courts. He was an avid sports fan and followed high school and college teams throughout the area. He was a member of the Grinnell Eagles Lodge.

Mr. Inman is survived by his mother, Ruth, and two sisters, Mrs. James (Mary Ellen) Lynch of Denver, Colo., and Mrs. Ray L. (Sally) Roth of Lemont, Ill. He was preceded in death by his father in 1975 and his twin brother, S-Sgt. John F. Inman who was killed in action over Germany on a bombing mission.

11-17-77 11:17 AM

Rites held for Mr. Inman

Funeral services for Silas "Bugs" Inman, 54, who died Saturday at St. Francis Manor, were held at 1:30 p.m. Tuesday at the Smith Funeral Home, with the Rev. James P. Russell, pastor of the Grinnell United Methodist Church, officiating.

Organist was Kathleen Heffner. Pallbearers were Kenneth Adams, Wilbur Anderson, Floyd Galbraith, Clifford Thorp, Lawrence Vitera, and Bill Werneburg.

Burial was at Hazelwood Cemetery.