

David Iske Funeral Rites Held Today

H-R 11-21-57

Funeral services were held today at Newton for David Iske, 76, retired Newton area farmer who died at Deaconess hospital in Marshalltown early Monday evening after suffering two strokes Sunday.

Mr. Iske's son, the Rev. Harold Iske of New Baltimore, Mich., officiated. Burial was in Newton Union cemetery.

Survivors include 11 children: Jack Iske and Mrs. Guy Wisgerhof of Newton; Mrs. Ralph Shafer of Ira; Mrs. Harley McIlrath of Kellogg; Kenneth Iske of Newburg; Rev. Harold Iske; Francis Iske of Phoenix, Ariz.; Mrs. Everett Williams of Marshalltown, and Theodore, Charles, and Carroll Iske, all of California.

Also surviving are his wife; one brother, Loren Iske of Newton; five sisters, Mrs. W. O. Hesson, Mrs. G. C. Hesson, Mrs. Maggie Tiedje, Mrs. Rose Bair, all of Newton, and Mrs. Sophia Mathers of Laurel; 25 grandchildren and several great grandchildren.

Mr. Iske was born on a farm North of Newton to William and Nancy Iske and married Leota Maude Hitchler on May 10, 1922.