

OBITUARY.

2-9- JOHN JACK 1906

The funeral of John Jack was held at the Friends church, Jan. 30, at eleven o'clock. The services were conducted by Miss Baker. The music was by a quartet consisting of Mrs. Lynch, Mrs. Fowler, Mr. C. W. Benson and Mr. Roy Patterson. The bearers were F. Risse, T. B. Shear, Cap. Palmer, C. Shearer, R. Jones, and A. Rhodes.

The floral decorations were beautiful—the gifts of his many friends and co-workers.

John Jack was born in Maine in 1887 and little of his life is known until his arrival four years ago at the home of Mr. Wm. Stickle. Here he made his home until the fall of 1905 when he came to Grinnell and found employment at the carriage works.

He was never strong and an operation seemed necessary. On Jan. 23 he was taken to Des Moines. The operation proved fatal, but to the end he clung to the faith of the Friends Church and passed happily away. The remains were brought to Grinnell and, after the services, sent to his aunt at
