

^{HR} Randy Duane Jack

⁹⁻²⁹⁻¹⁹⁹⁹
Randy Jack, 47, of Malcom died Sept. 21, 1999 died of injuries received from a fall at his farm.

His funeral was Sept. 25 at Smith Funeral Home in Grinnell with Rev. Torger Johnson, pastor of Victor United Methodist Church, officiating.

Kathy Lynch was the organist and a tape, "What A Wonderful World" by Louis Armstrong was played. Dana Vogt and Tracy Schafbuch sang, "Friends" and Holly Dunn sang "Daddy's Hands."

Casket bearers were Larry Aldridge, Glen Berry, Charley Cooper, Bill Benge, Kenny Bidwell and Kenny Jantzen.

Honorary bearers were Dan Albert, Duane McDonald, Rae Van Roekel, Mike Keith, John Sterner, Tom Harris and Bill Van Waus.

He was buried in Hazelwood Cemetery in Grinnell.

The son of Lowell and Phyllis Slaymaker Jack, he was born April 1, 1952 in Belle Plaine.

He was raised in Victor and graduated from HLV High School in 1970.

Following his education, Mr. Jack worked for Kinze Manufacturing Company and later, Miracle Recreation Company before farming near Grinnell. He then worked for John Deere of Grinnell and most recently, was self-employed as a heavy equipment operator.

On Feb. 20, he married Vicki Eker. The couple made their home on a farm near Malcom.

Mr. Jack was a member of the Grinnell Elks Lodge.

He was preceded in death by his father.

Survivors are his wife, Vicki; his mother, Phyllis Jack of Victor; his children, Brian Jack of Grinnell, Kristy Baarda and her husband, Shaun, of Kellogg; Stephanie Jack of Malcom and step-daughter, Katie Paulson of Malcom. Other survivors are two grandchildren,

Blake and Dalton; two sisters, Diane Stowell of Victor and Dana Vogt of Marengo and three brothers, Terry and Lonnie Jack, both of Victor and Doug Jack of Grinnell.

Randy D. Jack

Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon, Sept. 25, at the Smith Funeral Home in Grinnell for Randy D. Jack, 47, of Malcom, who died Tuesday, Sept. 21, 1999, of injuries received in an accidental fall from the hayloft on his farm.

The Rev. Torger Johnson, pastor of the Victor United Methodist Church, officiated, and Kathy Lynch was the organist. Taped selections were "Friends," "Daddy's Hands" and "What a Wonderful World."

Casket bearers were Larry Aldridge, Glen Berry, Charley Cooper, Bill Benge, Kenny Bidwell and Kenny Jantzen. Honorary bearers were Dan Albert, Duane McDonald, Rae Van Roekel, Tom Harris, Mike Keith, John Sterner and Bill Van Waus. Burial was in Hazelwood Cemetery in Grinnell.

Randy was born April 1, 1952, in Belle Plaine, to Lowell and Phyllis Slaymaker Jack, and was raised and educated in Victor. He graduated from HLV High School in 1970.

Following his education he lived in Victor and worked for Kinze Manufacturing Company and Miracle Recreation for a short time before farming at Grinnell. He then worked for the John Deere Company of Grinnell. Prior to his death he was self-employed as a heavy equipment operator.

On Feb. 20, 1999, he was married to Vicki Eker. The couple made their home on a farm near Malcom. He was a member of the Iowa National Guard and the Grinnell Elks Lodge.

Randy was preceded in death by his father.

Survivors include his wife, Vicki Jack, of Malcom; one son, Brian Jack of Grinnell; two daughters, Kristy Baarda, and her husband, Shaun, of Kellogg, and Stephanie Jack of Malcom; a step-daughter, Katie Paulson of Malcom; his mother, Phyllis Jack, of Victor; two grandchildren, Blake and Dalton; two sisters, Diane Stowell of Victor and Dana Vogt of Marengo; and three brothers, Terry Jack and Lonnie Jack, both of Victor, and Doug Jack of Grinnell.

BC
Sept. 29, 1999