Mrs. Hazen Jackman.

Mrs. Sylvia Congor Jackman whose death occurred December 4, was a native of New York state. She was one of a family of ten, of whom three survive: Mrs. H. B. Gifford of this city, Mrs. Amy Congor of Waterloo, Iowa, and George Congor, of Canton, N. Y. After her marriage to Mr. Hazen Jackman, she lived in Chicago for a number of years. Later their home was in Laurel, Iowa. Twelve years ago Mr. Jackman retired from active business and since that time Grinnell has been their home. Mrs. Jackman has been closely identified with the social life of the town. Her home has always been a center of gracious and generous hospitality where old and young alike were welcome. She was a member of the Priscilla Club and of the Read and Reflect Club, discharging faithfully and efficiently her duties as member or officer in these organizations. She was also much interested in civic affairs and in all matters pertaining to public welfare. She will be greatly missed by many friends but it is in the home, and in the circle of relatives and close friends who received the daily "little kindnesses" that she will be most lovingly remembered for the unselfish spirit which brought so much of helpfulness and cheer into their lives.

Funeral services were held at her home Sunday afternoon, conducted by Rev. Charles Noble. A profusion of flowers attested the wide affection in which she was held and were peculiarly appropriate because of her great love for flowers. Music was furnished by a quartet from the College Glee Club. The pallbearers were Messrs. G. H. Hamlin, G. H. McMurray, T. R. Warburton, S. J. Pooley, H. B. Brock and H. L. Beyer. Interment was in Hazlewood.
