

Former Resident Of County Dies

Mrs. R. L. Jacobs, nee Frances Winifred Mikesell, was born in Poweshiek county, Iowa, January 27, 1880, and died at Mahaska hospital in Okaloosa, December 20, 1929, after a few days' illness. She grew to womanhood in the vicinity of her birth. On February 16, 1898, she was united in marriage with R. L. Jacobs and to them three daughters were born. They are Mrs. Elsie McFall, Mankato, Minn., Mrs. Evelyn Grove of Harper, and Mrs. Dorothy Kempenaar of Okaloosa.

Besides her husband and daughters, she is survived by four grandchildren, her father, A. Mikesell of Victor, four brothers, Charles H. Mikesell of Deep River, Earl L. Mikesell of Packwood, Harry E. Mikesell of Chicago, and Chester E. Mikesell of Evanston, Ill., and one sister, Mrs. E. W. Eggers of St. Paul, Minn.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacobs began house-keeping on a farm in Poweshiek county and later lived in Barnes City for two years. After a brief sojourn in Minnesota, they moved to Deep River where they lived for five years and in 1915 they moved to Okaloosa where they have since resided.—
