

Anna Jennings

Anna C. Jennings, 100, of the Mayflower Home died Saturday, June 30, at Grinnell General Hospital.

Funeral services were conducted Tuesday at the Abram and Son Funeral Home in Berwyn, Ill., with burial in Mount Emblem Cemetery, Berwyn. The Smith Funeral Home was in charge of Grinnell arrangements.

The daughter of George and Anna Christina Butz Thomas, she was born Dec. 30, 1889, at Sterling, Ill. She graduated from Sterling High School and attended Brown Business College at Sterling.

She was married to George Jennings, and the couple lived in Chicago where she worked for the Rand McNally Co. She and her husband operated a grocery wholesale company in Chicago. Mrs. Jennings had been a Mayflower Home resident since 1972.

Surviving are her son, William L. of Woodridge, Ill.; two grandchildren; and three great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her parents and her husband.