

Mrs. Mose Johnson Is Buried In Montezuma

2-27-1930
Antonete Amelia Adams, daughter of John C. and Mary Adams, was born in Missouri on March 7, 1857. There she spent her early childhood, and in 1861, she, with her two brothers, Albert Douglas and Willie, and three sisters, Mary Adelia, Kate Orbin and Olive Beatrice, moved to Montezuma. On October 7, 1877, she was united in marriage with Mose A. Johnson. To this union one child, Edward Clyde, was born.

For thirty-one years they made their home in Montezuma, and after living one year in Cedar Rapids, they moved to Des Moines where they have since resided.

Mrs. Johnson had been in failing health for some time but her condition was not considered serious until a week ago, when she was taken seriously ill and passed away Friday morning, Feb. 14 at 12:15 o'clock.

She leaves to mourn her loss her devoted husband, her daughter-in-law, Mabel Zugg of Des Moines, three grandchildren, Beatrice Graves of Los Angeles, Marguerite Johnson of Indianapolis, Ind., and Edward Clyde Johnson of Des Moines, and one great-grandchild. Also one brother, Albert D. Adams of Grinnell, and a number of nieces and nephews and other relatives. She was preceded in death by her son, who passed away on December 21, 1915. Mrs. Johnson was always highly respected and her love for art and beauty manifested itself in the adornment of her home. Her happiest moments were spent in doing something to make her loved ones happy. She was a devoted wife and a very generous woman and her hands were ever ready to help some one in need.

Funeral services were held at 2 o'clock, Sunday afternoon, February 16, 1930, from the home of her brother-in-law, Walter Bowers, in Montezuma. The services were conducted by the Rev. M. E. Nethercut. Two hymns, "Abide With Me," and "In the Sweet Bye and Bye" were sung by Mrs. D. B. High and Mrs. J. L. Ravitts.

Pallbearers were B. L. Powell, Geo. F. Johnston, Cliff Smith, Fred Hawkins, J. E. Harden and C. G. Adams. Interment was in the Montezuma cemetery.—Montezuma Republican.
