

(ELDON)

Stella L. Johnson

23 OCTOBER 1995
M.R.

Stella L. Johnson, 77, of Barnes City died Friday, Oct. 20, at her home.

Funeral services were conducted Monday at the Watts Funeral Home in Montezuma.

She was the daughter of Christopher and Agnetta Christianson Iverson and was born Oct. 30, 1917 near Grinnell. She graduated from Grinnell High School and taught rural school for several years.

She was married to Eldon E. Johnson June 6, 1942, at her parents' home. The couple farmed south of Malcom. In 1971 they moved to a farm northeast of Barnes City and lived there until retiring and moving into Barnes City in 1981.

Mrs. Johnson attended Barnes City Community Christian Church and was a member of the Over Easy Club and Lend-a-Hand Club.

Surviving are her husband; two sons, Keith of Rose Hill and Paul of Deep River; two daughters, Erma Skadburg of Ames and Carla Shevokas of Urbandale; six grandchildren; one sister, Esther Bennett of Laurel; and two brothers, Lawrence Iverson of Grinnell and Arthur Iverson of Malcom.

She was preceded in death by one son, Dale, in infancy.

Stella Johnson

BO OCT 25 1995

Stella Johnson, 77, of Barnes City, died Oct. 20 in her home. Services were Oct. 23 from Watts Funeral Home, Montezuma. Burial: Barnes City Cemetery.

Survivors include her husband, Eldon; two daughters, Erma Skadburg of Ames and Carla Shevokas of Urbandale; two sons, Paul of Deep River and Keith of Rose Hill; two brothers, Lawrence Iverson of Grinnell and Arthur Iverson of Malcom; and a sister, Esther Bennett of Laurel.

Stella L. Johnson, 77

M.R. October 25, 1995

Stella L. Johnson, 77, died Friday, October 20, 1995, at her home.

Funeral services were held Monday, October 23, 1995 at Watts Funeral Home in Montezuma.

Stella, the daughter of Christopher and Agnetta (Christianson) Iverson, was born October 30, 1917 near Grinnell. She graduated from Grinnell High School and was a country school teacher in Poweshiek County for several years. On June 6, 1942, she married Eldon E. Johnson at her parents' home near Grinnell. The couple farmed south of Malcom for many years. In 1971 they moved to a farm northeast of Barnes City and lived there until retiring and moving into Barnes City in 1981.

She was preceded in death by a son, Dale Eldon, in infancy, and her parents.

Stella is survived by her husband, Eldon, and their four children and their families: Erma and Norm Skadburg, Julie and Jill of Ames; Keith and Ann Johnson, Jenna and Brett, Rose Hill; Paul and Teri Johnson, Katy and Steven, Deep River; and Carla and Michael Shevokas of Urbandale; and a sister Esther Bennett of Laurel; two brothers: Lawrence Iverson of Grinnell and Arthur Iverson of Malcom and their families.

Memorials may be made to the Home Health Department or to Hospice, Grinnell Regional Medical Center.