

MONTEZUMA REPUBLICAN . . . JUNE 13, 1968

Former Resident Killed In Car-Train Accident

Funeral services for a former Montezuma resident, Floyd Johnston, 62, will be at 2 p.m. Thursday, June 13, at the Conrad Methodist Church followed by burial there.

Mr. Johnston, a Conrad funeral director, was killed Saturday in a car-train accident at Bentonsport. His wife was injured in the accident and is the Van Buren Hospital at Keosauqua. She will be moved to a Marshalltown or Grundy Center hospital later.

Johnston was associated with the Steffy Funeral Home and furniture store here from 1938 to 1947. He moved from Montezuma to Conrad.
