

4-22 April 30,
1981
Dr. Jones, 88,

dies April 25

Dr. Lester Jones, 88, of Sutherland, a well-known veterinarian, died Saturday, April 25, at Sutherland.

A native of Brooklyn, he was the son of Eva Sherwin and Jacob Jones. His late wife was the sister of Warder Stoaks, who operated a drug store in Grinnell for several years.

Among survivors is a sister, Anna Milligan of Grinnell.

Military rites were conducted at Sutherland on Tuesday.

Rites held for Dr. Jones

Funeral services were conducted April 28 for Dr. L.L. Jones, formerly of Grinnell, who died April 25 at Sutherland.

Burial was at Waterman Cemetery, Sutherland, with the Baumgarten Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

The son of Jacob and Eva Sherwin Jones, he was born Feb. 28, 1893, at Brooklyn. He was graduated from Kansas City Veterinary College in 1917 and served in the U.S. Army during World War I.

On June 22, 1918, he was married to Violet Stoaks in Grinnell. He practiced veterinary medicine in Sutherland for several years, retiring in 1973.

Dr. Jones was a member of the United Methodist Church of Sutherland and the Methodist Men's Club. He was a charter member of the Sutherland American Legion post and a 50-year member of the local Masonic Lodge.

Survivors include two daughters, Barbara Cardwell of Fresno, Calif., and Winifred Thorne of Amherst, Mass.; a son, Jerry Jones of Sutherland; 10 grandchildren; five great-grandchildren; and a sister, Anna Milligan of Grinnell.