Pallbearers were Harold Brown, Ronald Baltisberger, Lorne Deppe, Donovan Evans, Wilbur Osland, and Clair Strand. Honorary pallbearers were Marion Olson, Carroll Rinden, Myron Roseland, Kenneth Saunders, William Sherman, and Phillip Wertz. Flower bearers were Mrs. Louise Strand and Mrs. Ruth Strand.

Burial was at Prairie View Cemetery, Gilman.

Should friends desire, memorials in Mrs. Jones' name may be made to the First Baptist Church.

The daughter of George and Rachel Rinden Strand, she was born Jan. 13, 1903, in Chester Township. She attended the Gilman schools and was graduated from high school in 1921. She later graduated from William Penn College.

On June 24, 1924, she was married to Arlo L. Jones. The couple had four children. Mr.

and Mrs. Jones farmed near Gilman and then moved to a farm near Jesup. They later returned to farm near Grinnell before moving to their Grinnell home in 1956.

Mrs. Jones taught school for 32 years and had been associated with the Grinnell-Newburg school system for 18 years. Before retiring, she taught sixth grade at the Newburg school.

Mrs. Jones was active in the First Baptist Church, having served on all of the church's major boards. She was a Sunday school teacher and served on the Board of Christian Education. She was chairperson of the Cancer drive here several years ago. She was a member of the Iowa State Education Association and the National Education Association.

Survivors include her children, Brad Jones of Rte. 1, Gilman, Mrs. Jerry (Jacquelyn) Hamon of Concordia, Kan., and Mrs. Warren (Carolyn) Wiley of Rte. 1, Grinnell and six grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband, Arlo, in 1956; a son, Roger in 1930; a grandchild; and a sister, Mrs. Thelma VanDeVenter.
