Floyd Kaisand rites Tuesday

3
Floyd H. Kaisand, 66, of 332 Main St., Grinnell, died Saturday morning at Grinnell General Hospital where he had been a patient the past five days.

Funeral services for Mr. Kaisand were held at 10:30 a.m. Tuesday at the Smith Funeral Home, with the Rev. Robert Gamble, priest in charge of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, officiating. Music was provided by Mrs. Willard Hefner, organist, and Mrs. Wayne Dayton, vocalist. Pallbearers were Don Hudnutt, Loren Innis, David Kaisand, Max Smith, Lloyd Wieslander, and Larry Workman.

The son of Jacob and Mattie Hink Kaisand, he was born Nov. 8, 1909, in Poweshiek County. He attended rural schools near the family farm.

On Feb. 3, 1932, he was married to V. Shirley Dobson at the Little Brown Church in Nashua. The couple had five children. Mr. and Mrs. Kaisand lived and farmed in Tama and Poweshiek counties until 1962. They then moved to Grinnell where Mr. Kaisand was employed at Miracle Recreation Equipment Co. Mr. Kaisand was a member of the Eagles Lodge.

Survivors include his wife, Shirley; his children, Floyd J. Kaisand of Grinnell, Mrs. Edgar (Norma) Cloyd of Hudson, Mrs. Charles (Sibyl) Reeves of Grinnell, Mrs. Dean (Sandy) Gregory of Fort Madison, and Robert Kaisand of Fort Madison; ten grandchildren; four sisters, Mrs. Lena Wieslander of Mitchellville, Christine Kaisand of Toledo, Mrs. Lucille Workman of Altoona, and Mrs. Arlene Pace of Marshalltown; and three brothers, John Kaisand of Grinnell, Harry Kaisand of Marshalltown, and Laird Kaisand of Minneapolis, Minn. He was preceded in death by a brother, Conrad, and two sisters in infancy.
