

(Melvin)

Carol Ann Kasal

Carol Ann Kasal, 56, of Grinnell died Saturday, Aug. 15, at University Hospitals in Iowa City.

Funeral services were conducted Tuesday at the Grinnell Christian Church, with the Rev. John Epperson officiating. Music was provided by organist Jolene Jones, soloist Jody Roudabush and a trio consisting of Janice and Janelle Epperson and Jody Roudabush.

Pallbearers were Bob Buchenau, Jeff DeWitte, Jason Epperson, Arthur Graham, Leonard Heinselman, Jody Kasal, Ben Mitchell and Tom Moore.

Burial was in Rector Cemetery, Chelsea, with the Smith Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

The daughter of Michael and Bessie Zavadsky Macek, she was born Aug. 25, 1935, in Iowa city. As a child she lived throughout the Midwest while her father worked for a railroad. She received most of her education in the Chicago and Belle Plaine areas.

She was married to Leslie W. Showalter Jan. 17, 1951, in Brooklyn, where she raised her family. The marriage ended in divorce. On May 27, 1983, she was married to Melvin Kasal in Nashua. Following their marriage, they lived in Grinnell. Mrs. Kasal was a former employee of DeLong Sportswear and the Mayflower Home and most recently worked for Friendship Manor.

She was a member of the Grinnell Christian Church.

Surviving are her husband, Melvin; two sons, Fred

Showalter of Ely and Gary Showalter of Brooklyn; three grandchildren; one brother, Lester Macek of Del Ray Beach, Fla.; and one sister, Deloris Lammert of Bloomfield.

She was preceded in death by her parents; two brothers, LaVern and Leonard Macek; five brothers and sisters in infancy; and her daughter, Diana Showalter.

H. K. A. 228. 1983