

~~19~~ October 31, 1988

Mr. Kaufman rites Thursday

Charles L. Kaufman, 87, of the Mayflower Home died Friday, Oct. 27, at Grinnell General Hospital.

Services will be conducted at 2:30 p.m. Thursday in Buckley Hall dining room at the Mayflower Home, with the Revs. David B. Bowman of the United Church of Christ-Congregational and Ben F. Hearn Jr. of the Mayflower Home officiating. Music will be provided by pianist Norman Goodbrod and vocalist Marvin E. Kelley.

The body has been cremated and ashes will be buried at Olio Cemetery, Eureka, Ill.

He was born Dec. 11, 1900, in a rural area west of Eureka, Ill., the son of Frank and Edna Kaufman. He received his B.A. degree from Eureka College and did graduate work at Northwestern University, Evanston, Ill.

For 13 years he was assistant cashier of the Farmers State Bank of Eureka, then became assistant chief accountant at Purdue University for five years. He came to Grinnell College in 1942 and served as controller, property manager and treasurer until his retirement in 1969.

Mr. Kaufman was a member of Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternity and a 50-year member and past master of William C. Hobbs Masonic Lodge at Eureka. He served on the board of trustees of the United Church of Christ-Congregational in Grinnell and on the board of trustees of Eureka College.

Surviving are his wife, Wilma; a son, Charles Philip of Wheaton, Ill.; a sister, Rachel Markland of Nokomis, Fla.; six grandchildren; and four great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his parents; his first wife, Ruby; a son, John; and a sister, Vista.

Memorials in Mr. Kaufman's name may be made to the Mayflower Homes Human Needs Endowment Fund.