

Mrs. Mary C.
Keating Passes

Mary C. Keating, beloved lady of Montezuma, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. C. Phelan, in East Chicago, Ind., following a brief illness, early Thursday morning. She would have been 81 years old had she lived until next January. The body was brought here for burial, the funeral services being said from the Presbyterian church, Friday afternoon, at 2:30, conducted by the pastor, the Rev. W. F. Vanderlip. Services at the grave were in charge of the Eastern Stars, an order in which she was a life long member and in which she took great interest. The Rev. A. H. Barker assisted with the services at the church.—Montezuma Republican.
