Marjorie Kelly rites are held

Marjorie Kelly, 79, of Grinnell died Thursday morning, March 5, at St. Francis Manor.

Graveside services were conducted at 3 p.m. Saturday at Hazelwood Cemetery, with the Rev. Philip J. Ramstad, pastor of the United Church of Christ — Congregational, officiating. The Smith Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

The daughter of Thomas B. and Myrtle B. Cole Jenkins, she was born Aug. 1, 1901, in Grinnell. She attended Grinnell schools. She was employed as a cable clerk for Northwestern Bell Telephone Co. at Des Moines for 22 years.

In 1939, she was married to Thomas Kelly at Bethany, Mo.

She traveled with her husband, who was employed by the Economy Forms Co. of Des Moines as a building contractor. Following her husband's death in 1962, she made her home in Grinnell.

Mrs. Kelly was a member of the United Church of Christ — Congregational, the Pioneer Association of Northwestern Bell, and a charter member of the Grinnell American Legion Auxiliary.

She is survived by two brothers, Orville Jenkins of Marshalltown and Joe J. Jenkins of Cedar Rapids, and two sisters, Louise and Edith Jenkins, both of Grinnell. She was preceded in death by her parents and her husband.
