

J. G. Kensinger Of Shridan Dies In Arkansas

13 - 17 - 1975

Mrs. Edna Dayton received word yesterday of the death of her brother, J. G. Kensinger, aged 59. He is a resident of Sheridan township, having lived a mile west of the Sheridan store. Last summer he had a closing out sale and had planned to move to Tama, but his condition became worse, so he went to Eureka Springs, Arkansas, last August, where he took treatments. He passed away Thursday morning at 11 o'clock in a hospital at that place.
