

MONTEZUMA NEWS

1960

Vesta, daughter of Eva and Charles Adkins, was born on July 11, 1880 in Montezuma and passed away in Clinton at the hospital on February 23rd at the age of 79 years. Vesta attended the local school and worked in the millinery shop for several years.

On November 30, 1909 she was united in marriage to Henry Kime and to this union there were three children born, Kenneth, Helen and Virginia. The Kimes made their home in the Deep River community where they farmed. They moved in 1919 to Montezuma. In 1949 they celebrated their Golden Wedding anniversary.

Mrs. Kime was a member of Wisner Circle, past matron of O.E.S. and a member of Montezuma Methodist church, Women's Society of Christian Service and Kings Daughters Sunday school class.

Her husband preceded her in death. She is survived by a son, Kenneth of Canoga Park, California; two daughters, Virginia

Callagher, Daly City, California, Helen Miller, Montezuma; a sister, Jennie Cronk, of Clinton. Nine grandchildren and two great grandchildren and other relatives.

Services were held on February 26th with Rev. George Snyder in charge. Mrs. Cliff Braley had charge of the Eastern Star services. Burial was in Masonic IOOF cemetery. The pallbearers were Ross Brooks, Sylvan VeVerka, Joe Alexander, Louis Schoales, W. H. Bonham, Adrian Sams.

Funeral Services (M. R.)

For Mrs. Kime

Friday, Feb. 26 1960

Memorial services for Mrs. Henry Kime, 79, lifetime resident of Montezuma and Deep River who died Tuesday in the Clinton hospital, will be held at 2 p.m. Friday at the Steffy Funeral Home.

The Rev. George Snyder will conduct the religious services, and members of Lafayette Chapter No. 232 Order of the Eastern Star will hold services for their departed sister.

Mrs. Kime had gone to Clinton to be with a sister. She fell about two weeks ago and received a head injury. Surviving are two daughters and a son, Mrs. Calvin Miller, Montezuma, Virginia Callagher, Daly City, Calif., and Kenneth Kime, Canoga Park, Calif.

Deep River News