

Rites held for Irma M. King

11-17-74
Mrs. Irma M. King, 71, the widow of Forrest King, died Sunday, Nov. 17, at St. Joseph Hospital, St. Charles, Mo.

The daughter of Lewis and Lisa Bagley Smith, she was born June 23, 1903, at Tama. She was married to Forrest King, who preceded her in death in January of 1973. The couple had one son, Thomas King of St. Charles, Mo.

Mrs. King was a teacher in the St. Charles public schools for 17 years. She was a member of the Good Shepherd United Church of Christ at St. Charles, as well as the China Painters Association and the Chi Omega sorority.

She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband Forrest, and a sister in infancy. Survivors include her son Thomas and four grandchildren.

Graveside services for Mrs. King were held at 11 a.m. Wednesday, Nov. 20, at Hazelwood Cemetery, with the Rev. Philip J. Ramstad, pastor of the United Church of Christ-Congregational, officiating.

Friends may call the Smith Funeral Home for additional information.