

Thursday, October 28, 1965

Rev. J. Kingsbury,
Former Resident,
Dies In Illinois

Grinnell friends have received word of the death of a former resident, the Rev. John A. Kingsbury, 44, of Maywood, Ill., on Friday, Oct. 15. He died of cancer, after a three week illness.

The Rev. Kingsbury was the first Director of Religious Education at the Grinnell Congregational Church, and was ordained in the local church a few years later, when the National Synod convened here.

With his wife, the Rev. Mr. Kingsbury served as a missionary in Turkey. He leaves, in addition to his wife, three adopted children, and his parents.