

Bertha Kling services held

Bertha Kling, 92, a resident of the Kellogg area for many years, died this week at Newton.

Funeral services were conducted Thursday at the Wallace Funeral Home in Newton, with burial at the Newton Union Cemetery.

Memorials in Mrs. Kling's name may be made to the First United Methodist Church.

The daughter of Herman and Katherine Kinzel Brooks, she was born Feb. 22, 1890, in Des Moines. She was married to Louis Kling on Dec. 25, 1911, in Kellogg. She was a member of the First United Methodist Church, the United Methodist Women, the JOC Sunday School Class and the Chat-a-Bit Club. She formerly taught school in Jasper County.

Survivors include two sons, Henry of Grandview, Mo., and George of Newton; four daughters, Grace Meredith of Kellogg, Florence Smith of Palms Verdes Estates, Calif., Mary Powell of Mason City and Dorothy Pearson of St. Petersburg, Fla.; 17 grandchildren and 17 great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her husband in 1979; a granddaughter; a sister, Anna Kahle; and two brothers, Albert and Ernest Brooks.