Conduct Funeral Rites Today For Mrs. Emma Lamb

William, Mrs. Lewis

Mrs. Emma Caroline Lamb, 80, of Grinnell, died early Friday afternoon at a local hospital after an illness of the past 10 days.

Funeral services were held this afternoon (Monday) from the Smith Funeral Home with the Rev. Laverne Streich, pastor of St. John's Lutheran church, officiating. Vocal music was by Mrs. Wayne Dayton, accompanied by Mrs. Kathleen Heffner at the organ.

Flower bearers were Mrs. Leslie Mehlis, and Mr. and Mrs. Herschel Griffith. Pallbearers were Donald Schultz, Gerald Carpenter, Warren Broders, Paul Jantzen, Leonard Lamb, and Leslie Mehlis. Burial was in Ivy Hill cemetery at Malcom.

The daughter of Jacob and Amelia Baum Schultz, she was born near Malcom on June 27, 1883, and attended the rural schools near her home. On Dec. 15, 1910, she was united in marriage with William L. Lamb at Malcom.

To this union were born seven children, six of whom survive: Faye W. Lamb of Grinnell, Mrs. Stanley (Bernice) Pals of Thornton, LaVerne W. Lamb of Grinnell, Mrs. Wayne (Maxine) Smith of Kinross, Merle A. Lamb of Grinnell, and Shirel E. Lamb of Cedar Rapids.

Mrs. Lamb had lived in the Malcom and Grinnell areas all of her life and was the first child baptized in the old Trinity Lutheran church. She was a member of the first communion class of the church and her parents formerly owned the land on which the church and cemetery are located.

She is survived by her six children; 13 grandchildren; three great grandchildren; one brother, Elmer Schultz of Malcom; and one sister, Mrs. Elmer Broders, of Grinnell.

Preceding her in death were her parents; husband, William, in 1952; a son, Truman J. Lamb in 1933; and one grandson, Charles Pals.
