

March 12, 1986
ELMER RAYMOND LANE

Elmer Raymond Lane was born June 8, 1902, the son of Edward and Bertha Lane. A lifelong resident of Poweshiek County, Iowa, Mr. Lane received his education in Guernsey community.

On July 15, 1926, he was united in marriage to Wilma Irva Malin at Wheaton, Ill. To their marriage was born five children. Following his marriage, Mr. Lane engaged in farming near Guernsey. In later years he was employed by the Wilder Grain Company in Guernsey and for many years was employed as the custodian of the Guernsey School.

At the time of his death on March 5, 1986, Mr. Lane was a member of St. John's Lutheran Church.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by two sons, Richard and Larry, two grandchildren, Richard Neitzel and Sheila Icenbice and one sister, Emma Johnston.

He is survived by his three daughters, Evelyn Neitzel of Malcom, Patricia Doonan of Oska-loosa and Norma Dee Kriegel of Tama, Iowa. In addition he is survived by 17 grandchildren, 28 great grandchildren, 1 great-great-grandson and a brother, Everett Lane of Sigourney.

Funeral services for Mr. Lane were held at 2 p.m., Friday at the McAninch-Fremming Funeral Home in Victor. Officiatin was the Rev. Kenneth Barteit, pastor of St. John's Lutheran Church, Lincoln Township.

Mrs. William Alexander played two organ solos, "Lead Me Gently Home" and "Beyond The Sunset."

In care of flowers were Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Kluber and Tom Morton.

Concluding services and burial were held at the Guernsey Cemetery with Mr. Lane's grandsons serving as casket bearers. They were Stephen Neitzel, Donald Lane, Dennis Lane, Everett Icenbice, Ernest Icenbice and Joseph Kriegel.