

Howie Lang services held

~~H-R~~ ^{4, 1982} November
Funeral services were held Wednesday, Oct. 27, for Howie Lang, 88, of Rte. 2, Brooklyn, at the Madison Church of Christ. Mr. Lang died Monday, Oct. 25, at St. Francis manor, where he had been a patient since September.

of Newhall; 22 grandchildren; 24 great-grandchildren and six great-great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his parents, two brothers, two sisters and four grandchildren.

Officiating at the services was Dennis Smith, minister of the Madison Church of Christ. Pallbearers were August DeLoof, Arthur Keller, Charles DePauw, Warren Ryan, Daryl Dyer and Marion Hendrickson. Burial was at the I.O.O.F. Cemetery, Brooklyn.

The son of John B. and Nettie Howie Lang, he was born March 27, 1894, in Madison Township. He was a farmer and breeder of Ayrshire cattle and had served as a director of the National Ayrshire Association. He was a longtime member of the Madison Church of Christ, which he had served as a deacon.

He is survived by his wife, Estella; four sons, Merle of Cumming, Maynard and Jack, both of Brooklyn, and Larry of West Des Moines; two daughters, Evelyn Moore of Grinnell and Irene Gallagher