

1945 LEONA L. LARRABEE

Leona L. Larrabee, '86, died Thursday, Feb. 8, in Portland, Ore. She had been ill for a year. Funeral services were held Feb. 12, with burial in Rose City cemetery. Anna Larrabee, a sister, survives.

Miss Larrabee had retired from teaching several years ago, following service at Tacoma, Wash., High school; at Portland High school as teacher of Latin; and at Lincoln High school as head of the Latin department. She was a worker for teachers' pensions, teachers' tenure, and women's suffrage.

Notice from the Portland Oregonian was forwarded to the A. S. and B. by E. G. Harlan, '11.

905 East street.

A-1945
Word has been received of the death of Miss Leona Larrabee of Portland, Ore. She was a member of the class of 1886 of Grinnell college. The Larrabee family were old residents of Grinnell. Mr. Larrabee, a carpenter, built the home on the southeast corner of Seventh and Broad street after the Cyclone. A sister, Miss Annie Larrabee, is in a nursing home in Portland, Ore.