

M-R June 7, 1990

Kenneth Lavender

Kenneth E. Lavender, 59 Marshalltown, died May 26 at his home from injuries suffered in an accidental fall.

Services were held Wednesday, May 30, at the Gilman Community Church with burial in Prairieview Cemetery, Gilman.

He was born in Grinnell and had lived in Ames and Des Moines before moving to Marshalltown. He served in the United States Army in the Korean conflict and had worked for Roadway Motels for 18 years.

He is survived by one daughter Jan Bardel, Oak Forest, Ill.; one son Jay Lavender, Worth, Ill.; three stepsons Perry Elwood, Huntington Beach, Calif.,
Paul Elwood, San Francisco, Calif., and Andrew Elwood, Des Moines; five sisters,
Norma Elliott, Grinnell, Ruth Ashing, Gilman, Bonnie Haradon, Princeton, Texas and Mary Grudgings and Donna Harris, Marshalltown, and two brothers, Gordon Lavender, Marshalltown, and Larry Lavender, Cedar Rapids; two grandchildren and six step-grandchildren.