

3-8 OBITUARY. 1907

George W. Legg, the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Legg, was born at Malcom, Iowa, Jan. 5th, 1869, where he made his home until entering the employment of the Chicago Great Western R. R. in 1890, as a locomotive fireman, first at Valeria and later at Des Moines.

He was married to Miss Minnie Simons, of Des Moines, on Nov. 30, 1897, and moved to St. Joseph, Mo., in May, 1905, where he was employed at the Regal Dry Cleaning Parlors. Recently he accepted a similar position at Kansas City.

After a severe illness of three weeks he succumbed to peritonitis at 8 a. m., Feb. 28, 1907.

Mrs. Legg and Mrs. Mezik accompanied the remains to Marshalltown, where interment occurred Sunday, March 3, in Riverview cemetery. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Dr. Jones, of the Baptist church at the home of the wife's mother, Mrs. E. G. Jackson, at 201 North 6th avenue.

A wife and three children, one brother, Morley H. Legg, of St. Joseph, Mo., and five sisters, Mrs. Lela Casteel, of St. Joseph Mo.; Mrs. Hattie Mezik, Mrs. Dorą Hemphill and Mrs. Anna Smith, of Brooklyn, Iowa, and Mrs. Isadore O'Henry, of Belle Plaine, Iowa, survive him.

Relatives from out-of-town who attended the funeral were Morley H. Legg, of St. Joseph; Mrs. Anna Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hemphill, of Brooklyn; W. L. Henry and Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Henry and daughter, of Belle Plaine; Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Rich and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Kingdon, of Grinnell, Iowa.

Mrs. Mezik and Mrs. Henry went to Kansas City to render assistance as nurses, but with Mrs. Casteel on account of sickness were unable to attend the funeral.
