Services Sunday

For Mrs. Rheu Light

Rheu, daughter of William and Frances Kirker, was born in Poweshiek county, Iowa, on June 17, 1882, and passed away in the Mahaska hospital, Oskaloosa, on April 10, 1969, at eighty-six years of age.

In her youth, she attended rural school and became a member of the Deep River Methodist church.

On Feb. 19, 1902, she was united in marriage with Clarence L. Light. To this union, one son was born. Her husband passed away in 1951.

Rheu spent her entire life in the Deep River community; she was an active member of the W.S.C.S. and the Methodist church as long as her health permitted.

She is survived by her son, Manus Light, of Pueblo, Colo., who suffered a severe stroke about eight years ago and is a bedfast patient in a nursing home. Also surviving are two granddaughters, Ora Jean Rosenberg of East Moline, Ill., and Mona Jackson of Davenport; two grandchildren, Kim Rosenberg and Susan Jackson; other relatives and many friends.

Services for Mrs. Light were 2:30 p.m. at the Deep River Methodist church, with the Rev. James Seeber officiating. Mrs. Charles Norris was organist.

Casketbearers were Paul Light, P. J. Icenbice, Farrell Johnson, Doren Dale, Carl Bausitan and Charles Gillaspie. Burial was in Golden Rod cemetery, Deep River, under the direction of Steffey Funeral Home.
