

Rites held for Viola Lincoln

(GLENN HUME)

Viola June Lincoln, 72, died Jan. 6, at Knoxville Area Community Hospital.

Funeral services were conducted on Jan. 8 at the United Methodist Church in Monroe, with the Walters-Coburn Funeral Home officiating. Burial was at Silent City Cemetery.

The daughter of Guy Joseph and Jessie Josephine Thomasson Banks, she was born June 28, 1911, in Spring Hill. She was educated in the schools of Spring Hill and Ayrshire.

She was married to Glenn Hume, who preceded her in death in 1935. On Feb. 15, 1946, she was married to Albert Lincoln.]

Mrs. Lincoln was a member of the Ayrshire Baptist Church.

She is survived by her mother, of Monroe; four children, Dale R. Hume, Pauline Fales and Joyce Palm, all of Monroe, and Patricia Johnson of Albia; two stepchildren, Rosemary Benson of Grinnell and Richard Lincoln of Newton; 13 grandchildren; seven great-grandchildren; and a sister, Margaret Kingery of Monroe.

She was preceded in death by her father; her husbands; two brothers, Bill and Joe; an infant son; two grandsons and two great-granddaughters.

H-R January 13, 1953