Rites At Kellogg Held Today For Albert Lindberg

Funeral services were held this afternoon (Thursday) from the Kellogg Christian church for Albert Lindberg, 66, of Kellogg.

Mr. Lindberg died Monday morning at an Iowa City hospital of burns received Friday at his farm home near Kellogg.

Officiating at the services was the Rev. Charles Fry, pastor of the church. Interment was in Our Silent City cemetery at Kellogg.

The son of James and Charlotte Martenson Lindberg, he was born August 3, 1896, in Kellogg. He was a 1914 graduate of Kellogg high school. With the exception of five years spent in Des Moines, he had spent his entire life in the Kellogg community.

A veteran of World War I, he was a member of the Masonic Lodge, Shrine, Eastern Star, and the American Legion.

Survivors include his widow, Bessie; and two stepsons, Morris Stark of Fremont, Calif., and Delbert Stark of Riverside, Calif.
