Allie Livezey A Long
Resident of Searsboro

Allie, daughter of Jane and Abraham Tahash, was born near Peoria, Iowa, May 21, 1873, and died July 6, at 89 years of age.

When a child, she moved with her parents to the Searsboro community where she attended school. In her youth, she was the organist of the Methodist church in Lynnville for several years. Later she transferred her membership to the Friends church in Searsboro where she was an active worker as long as her health permitted.

On Jan. 16, 1895, she was united in marriage with Frank O. Brignon, and to this union, eight children were born; one son, Roscoe, died in childhood. Their entire married life was spent in Searsboro community, where, on May 4, 1943, Mr. Brignon passed away.

On Dec. 15, 1947 she was united in marriage with Earl E. Livezey. They made their home in Chicago, Ill., after the death of Mr. Livezey in 1959, she returned to Montezuma, where she has been cared for in the Goeke Nursing Home.

Mrs. Livezey is survived by her four daughters, Mrs. Marie Main, Mrs. Mamie Watson, Mrs. Ruth Baker, Mrs. Alice Myers, and by her three sons, Rollo, Glenn and Ernest Brignon; also, seven grandchildren, eight great grandchildren.

Funeral services were conducted at 10 a. m. July 9 at the Friends church, Searsboro, by the Rev. Myrtle Lee. Mrs. Jessie Mitchell was organist and accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Steen who sang "Sweet Hour of Prayer" and "What a Friend We Have in Jesus."

Interment was in the Searsboro IOOF cemetery under direction of the Steffy Funeral Home. Casket bearers were George Johnson, Arie Binegar, William Bray, Earl Mitchell, Roy Moore and John Graham.
