

Maxine Lohman (Gerald)

Maxine L. Lohman, 77 died Monday, Nov. 6, at Friendship Manor.

Funeral services were conducted Friday at Place-Lunning Chapel in Burlington, with the Rev. David Hoffelt officiating. Burial was in Aspen Grove Cemetery, Burlington.

The daughter of Ralph and Anna Marie Cline, she was born Nov. 25, 1917, in Springfield, Ill. She was a 1935 graduate of Farmersville Community High School. She was married to Gerald Browning Lohman Sr. Dec. 25, 1940, in Springfield.

Mrs. Lohman was a founding member of the Westminster Presbyterian Church in Burlington in the late 1940s and continued as a member after its merger with the First Presbyterian Church in the 1980s.

Survivors include two sons, Gerald Jr. of Kellogg and Richard of Richmond, Va.; one sister, Evelyn Ryan of Springfield; four grandsons and two granddaughters. She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband; one daughter, Anne Lohman; and one brother, Harold Cline.

HR November 13, 1995