

Dorothy M. Lovig

Dorothy M. Lovig, 92, of Gilman died Friday, Nov. 24, at the Mayflower.

Funeral services were conducted Tuesday at the Gilman Community Church, with the Revs. Bill and Carol Iammatteo-Code officiating. Burial was in Resting View Cemetery, Gilman, with the Estel Perry Avey Funeral Home of Marshalltown in charge of arrangements.

The son of Arthur and Maude Cronk Davidson, she was born April 15, 1908, in LeGrand. She was a 1926 graduate of Montour High School.

On May 25, 1930, she was married to Glenn Lovig in LeGrand. They farmed in the Gilman area.

Mrs. Lovig was a member of the Gilman Community Church, the Women's Fellowship of the church, the 20th Century Club, the Good Neighbors Club and the Gilman Library board. She also served as a Sunday school superintendent and teacher.

She is survived by three sons, Glenn of Silver City, N.M., and David and Stephen, both of Gilman; one daughter, JoAnn Higgins of Traer; 15 grandchildren; 30 great-grandchildren; and two great-great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her husband; her parents; two sisters, Marguerite in infancy and Marjorie Nuese Robertson; and one brother, Arthur Davidson.

Memorial contributions may be directed to her church.
