

Oldest Citizen Of Lynnville Passes Away

(By a Staff Correspondent)

Lynnville, Ia., Jan. 7. Special
Frederick Lucas, Lynnville's oldest citizen, is no more. He was born in Virginia March 21, 1841 and passed away at his home here after years of suffering at the age of 92 years and nine months.

He leaves one son Bert, of Des Moines, and five grandchildren. His wife and two daughters preceded him in death. Funeral services were held from the Friends church Wednesday afternoon and burial was in the Woodland cemetery.
