Lois Lowrey dies April 2

Lois Newton Lowrey, 89, a longtime resident in Grinnell, died early Wednesday, April 2, at Embassy Manor Care Center in Newton.

The body was cremated, and burial of the ashes will take place later at the convenience of the family. Memorials in Mrs. Lowrey's name may be left at the Smith Funeral Home in Grinnell.

The daughter of Willis Eugene and Mary Elizabeth Stark Newton, she was born on Dec. 26, 1896, west of Newburg in Jasper County. She attended rural school, then graduated from Grinnell High School in 1915. She attended St. Luke's Nursing School in Chicago, Ill., receiving her degree in nursing in 1920. She worked as a nurse at Grinnell Community Hospital; Lake County Sanitarium, Waukegan, Ill.; Tri-Borough City Hospital, New York City; and Penrose Hospital, Colorado Springs, Colo. She returned to Grinnell in 1967, living here until moving to Embassy Manor in Newton in 1981.

She is survived by two children, U.S. Army Col. Willis H. Lowrey (ret.) of Honolulu, Hawaii, and Margaret Bliss of Canon City, Colo.; nine grandchildren; and six great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her parents; one brother, Leonard E. Newton; and a sister, Bertha Newcomer.

Graveside services were conducted at 2:30 p.m. Thursday at Hazelwood Cemetery. There are no immediate survivors in Janesville and had lived in the Waverly area since 1965.
