He was the son of the late deceased Mr. and Mrs. Henry Luttman, Sr. It was in Ohio where in childhood he received the Holy Sacrament of Baptism and in later years of his youth after due instruction he was confirmed in the Lutheran faith. During the spring of 1890 the Luttman family journeyed to Iowa and settled on a farm in Sheridan township of our county. In the year 1892 they moved to Chester Township where larger holdings were secured.

Mr. L. Luttman leaves a host of friends who regret to mourn his loss. The family circle especially deserves our heartfelt sympathy. Deceased was industrious on the farm, affectionate in the home, and a good neighbor.
