

Services Wednesday For George Lyman

Funeral services were held at 10 a.m. Wednesday from the McAninch Chapel in Victor for George Lyman, 91. Rev. George Roquet, pastor of the United Presbyterian church, Brooklyn, officiated. Mr. Lyman died April 24 at the Plaine Crest Nursing home, Belle Plaine, where he has spent the past three years.

Mrs. Edith Shaul was organist. Casket bearers were David Dolmage, Merlyn Mohr, Wallace Hladky, Johnnie Werle and Dennis Dolmage. Honorary bearers were Wallace Edelen, Andrew Calderwood, August Heinen, Cliff Williamson, Glen Connell, Nelson Korn and Delmar Heishman. Burial was in I.O.O.F. cemetery, Victor.

George Lyman, the son of George and Mary Jane Border Lyman, was born in Victor April 29, 1876. He received his education in the rural school.

On Oct. 18, 1899 he married Maude Mae Keysor. They farmed in Poweshiek county, moving to Brooklyn in 1930 where they lived until Mr. Lyman's health failed in 1964. He was hospitalized at the Marengo Memorial hospital and later transferred to the Plaine Crest Nursing home.

He served on the board of the Poweshiek county Mutual Insurance company of Grinnell for 33 years. He was assessor, township trustee, director of the rural school for several years, a member of the Brooklyn I.O.O.F. lodge for over 50 years and a charter member of the Golden Wedding club of Brooklyn. Mr. and Mrs. Lyman observed their 67th wedding anniversary on October 18, 1966.

Survivors include his wife, Maude and their seven children, Cecil, Fort Dodge; Cloyd, Victor; Marie, Mrs. J. F. Hladky, Fort Meyers, Fla.; Hazel, Mrs. Wayne Dolmage, Victor; Theima, Mrs. Dale Mohr, West Liberty; Dorothy, Mrs. Wayne Heishman, Des Plaines, Ill., and Bernice, Mrs. T. W. Reida, Lake View; 25 grandchildren, 57 great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandchild, and one sister, Mrs. Bertha Bope, Belle Plaine.

He was preceded in death by his parents, five sisters, three brothers, three grandchildren and one great-grandchild.