LOVILLA LYMAN
DIES SUDDENLY
AT SAN FRANCISCO

Lovilla Lyman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry G. Lyman, passed away suddenly last Sunday evening in a hospital in San Francisco after a brief illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry G. Lyman will be remembered by many Grinnell residents as this was their home up to the time they moved to California, because of Mr. Lyman's health, in March 1919. While here, Mr. Lyman was an attorney located in the law offices with Rayburn.

At the time the Lyman's were located in Grinnell, in 1919, Lovilla was a small girl, about 4 years of age, so many here did not have the pleasure to know her. At the time of her death, she had been married about a year.
