Montezuma Mourns Another Pioneer

5 - 21 - 1915

Montezuma mourns the loss of another pioneer, in the death of Mrs. J. N. Marsh, who passed away Saturday evening, May 16th at 6:30. She has been in ill health for the past few years, but not seriously until last Tuesday morning. She bore her ill health without complaint and was always in the best of spirits.

Funeral services were conducted from the Christian church, Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 by the Rev. J. M. Hoffman. Burial was in the local cemetery.—Montezuma Republican.
