

Mrs. Chas. Marshall Buried Thursday

Funeral services were conducted Thursday, June 24, at the Deep River Christian Church for Mrs. Charles Marshall. The Rev. John Hansel officiated at the 10:30 a.m. service. Mrs. Vaughn Icenbice was the pianist.

Casket bearers were Robert McWilliams, Dale McWilliams, Dean McWilliams, Virgil Lester, Vern Cheney and Burton Rank. Interment was in Golden Rod cemetery, Deep River.

Sadie, daughter of Delilah and John Icenbice, was born near Deep River, Iowa, March 26, 1878, and died June 20, at 87 years of age.

She attended rural school and graduated from Deep River High School in 1896. She attended a tailoring training school in St. Paul, Minn., and served for several years as a practical nurse.

She married Charles Marshall on Sept. 2, 1908 and they made their home in Deep River.

Sadie was a member of the Christian Church and was active as long as her health permitted. She served as treasurer and Sunday School teacher.

Since the death of her husband she maintained her home in Deep River until recently when she has been cared for in a nursing home.

She is survived by two step-daughters, Mrs. Evelyn Shade, Bentonville, Ark., and Mrs. Clare Berg, Cedar Falls, Iowa; seven grandchildren and sixteen great grandchildren; also, one aunt, Mrs. Minnie Ellis, Long Beach, Calif.
