

Ruth Martin dies at 82

Ruth Fisher Martin, 82, of Wheat Ridge, Colo., formerly of the Grinnell area, died Wednesday, Aug. 5, at the Colorado Health Science Center.

Burial was in Crown Hill Cemetery on Aug. 10.

Mrs. Martin was born March 12, 1905, in Chester Center, Iowa, and was a 1923 graduate of Grinnell High School. She was also a graduate of Iowa State University. She was an adult-education teacher and a member of the American Association of University Women.

She is survived by a daughter, Mary Ellen Brown of Denver, Colo.; a son, E. Samuel Martin of Wheat Ridge; eight grandchildren; four great-grandchildren; and a sister, Dorothy E. Fisher of Denver, a 1927 graduate of Grinnell College.